

Call for Papers:

Participants are invited to submit papers (6-8 pages) addressing any of the panel themes. Conference attendance is not conditioned by paper submission. Selected papers will be compiled in the conference proceedings, to be published by a distinguished publishing house. Papers should follow academic formatting standards and be written in English. Authors should clearly indicate which panel theme their submission addresses. The publication will be a valuable contribution to the ongoing discourse on military ethics and leadership in modern warfare. Further details regarding submission guidelines and deadlines will be provided in the formal call for papers.
